

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 12, 1961

How to get from Foreign Ministers Meeting to a Peace Conference?

the Lay out components, ~~two~~ ways:

A. elements of agreements, which can be included or excluded in any particular plan

B. means of agreement

A. Elements of Agreement

Allies want

guaranteed status
improved access connections to Bonn minimum recognition livable Berlin boundary

USSR wants

end of occupation
end of real agitation
some recognition
Oder-Neisse

Both can gain from

Mixed committees
Non-aggression agreement nuclear limitation
U. N. presence
U. N. guarantees

B. Means of Agreement

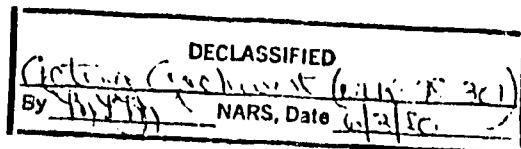

1. Modified Peace Plan

Advantages

easy to agree with Allies
conform to our hopes

Disadvantages

impossible to sell to Soviets
known to be impossible to sell to Soviets lacking in appeal to our own public opinion

2. Interim Berlin and Security Agreement

Advantages

moderately saleable to Allies

practical and realistic

moderately negotiable

Disadvantages

not very striking

probably not good enough for a settlement

somewhat open to charges of "retreat"

3. Peace Conference and Parallel Treaties

Advantages

Most likely to succeed

Shows U. S. initiative

Corresponds to reality

Disadvantages

Hard to sell to Allies

May give Soviets a real victory in Germany